

Manrex Launches French Website

Manrex.com is now viewable in Canada's official languages, English and French

July 6, 2010

Manrex Limited is proud to announce the official launch of www.manrex.com in French.

"Manrex works with a large number of loyal French customers, primarily based in the province of Quebec but also spread out across a number of French communities throughout Canada", states Ben Szuuts, Sales Manager for Manrex Limited. "We are extremely excited to have launched this new site for these important customers, we trust that it will meet their needs and more easily allow them to join us on our mission to help healthcare providers save lives by eliminating medication errors."
